Manufacturer of float glass

There are thousands of glass products available. However, few are offered by companies that have a truly global reach as well as a robust customer focus that partners with you to help meet your unique project and product goals. Below, you'll see our high-quality glass working hard in homes and offices, museums, sports stadiums, cars and in the world's most iconic projects. Our quality: the best. Our range: extraordinary. If you know what type of glass you are looking for, but perhaps not its name, we encourage you to explore.

Production of low-emissivity (low-E), solar control glass products for residential (Guardian ClimaGuard) and commercial (Guardian SunGuard) applications. These high-performance products improve a building's energy efficiency, aesthetics and comfort for its occupants.
